Declaration

Declaration

I have read and understood the relevant legislation listed, and the attached scheduled conditions. I agree to comply with relevant legislation, and the scheduled conditions, should my agistment application be approved. I acknowledge that should I fail to comply or breach any of relevant legislation or the scheduled conditions, my agistment approval may be revoked.

I accept all financial obligations which may accrue from stock management activities conducted on my behalf in order to:

a) Comply with Part 6 of the Fossicking Regulation 2009; and
b) Comply with the scheduled conditions prescribed by Council.

I accept that if I fail to comply with or breach this agreement and my agistment is terminated, or if my agistment approval lapses, I will remove my stock from the 'Rubyvale, Sapphire and Scrub Lead Miners Common within seven (7) days of the approval being terminated/lapsing. I will return remove the agistment tags issued to me and return the agistment tags to Council within three (3) days of removing the stock.

I ALSO ENCLOSE THE NON-REFUNDABLE APPLICATION FEE OF $15.15 PER TAG I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS FEE DOES NOT GUARANTEE PERMIT APPROVAL.

Lodgment

Please attach the following supporting documents:

1. Copy of Rates Notice (Property must be inside the Rubyvale, Sapphire, and Scrub Lead Miners Common area)
2. Proof of Address (Must prove that the stock owner resides on the property described in the rates notice – e.g. drivers license, power bill, etc.)
3. Proof of Stock Ownership
4. Copy of Brand Registration
5. Completed Client Information Form – Queensland Government

How long agistment approval is in force

An agistment approval is in force for the period stated in the approval and may be renewed. However, an agistment approval lapses if the approval holder does not do the following within 14 days of the date of the approval – pay the fees payable under the approval, and upon payment start agisting the stock on the miners common. Failure to renew the approval within the timeframe specified in the renewal notice will result in the approval lapsing.
