

1. Hover over the chart heading to access the interactive tools.

4. Click here to drill up into the data hierarchy to the original view.

2. Click here to turn on the drill down function to interact with the data. Once this function is turned on you can click on the graphs to interact with the data

3. Click here to see a full size version of the chart. Once you have finished with this view click 'Back to Report' at the top left of the chart to return to the smaller view.

