

CATASTROPHIC FDI 100+	A fire with a rating of “catastrophic” is uncontrollable, unpredictable and fast moving. The flames will be higher than roof tops. Many people will be injured and thousands of homes and businesses will be destroyed. During a “catastrophic” fire, well prepared, constructed and defended homes may not be safe. Leaving is the safest option for your survival.
EXTREME FDI 75-99	A fire with an “extreme” rating is uncontrollable, unpredictable and fast moving. The flames will be higher than roof tops. During an “extreme” fire, people will be injured and hundreds of homes and businesses will be destroyed. During a fire with an “extreme” rating, only well prepared, well constructed and actively defended houses are likely to offer any safety during a fire. Leaving is the safest option for your survival.
SEVERE FDI 50-74	A fire with a “severe” rating will be uncontrollable and move quickly, with flames that may be higher than roof tops. A severe fire may cause injuries and some homes or businesses will be destroyed. During a fire with a “severe” rating, leaving is the safety option for your survival. Only use your home as a place of safety if it is well prepared and you can actively defend it.
VERY HIGH FDI 25-49	A fire with a “very high” danger rating is a fire that can be difficult to control with flames that may burn into the tree tops. During a fire of this type some homes and businesses may be damaged or destroyed. During a fire with a “very high” danger rating, you should only use your home as a place of safety
HIGH FDI 12-24	A fire with a “high” danger rating is a fire that can be controlled where loss of life is unlikely and damage to property will be limited. During a fire with a “high” danger rating, you should know where to get more information and monitor the situation for any changes.
LOW / MODERATE FDI 0-11	A fire with a “low to moderate” rating can be easily controlled and post little or no risk to life or property. During a fire with a “low to moderate” rating, you should know where to get more information and monitor the situation for any changes.